

STUDENT ACKNOWLEDGEMENT NOTICE
Nova Southeastern University
Fischler College of Education and School of Criminal Justice

This is a NON-CERTIFICATION Track Degree Program

Non-certification track degrees (“Programs”) or non-certification track concentrations/courses are designed for individuals not seeking certification or licensure. These programs do not qualify as professional licensure or state-approved/certification preparation programs.* Furthermore, they are not designed to meet requirements for certificate add-ons, upgrades, endorsements, or incentives for district employment. NOTE: The M.S. in Developmental Disabilities with a concentration in Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) is a non-certification program and does not lead to licensure or credentialing.

Students are encouraged to review the official Graduate Catalog of the Fischler College of Education and School of Criminal Justice (FCESCJ) for program-specific policies and procedures. The catalog serves as the governing document for all college-related information and can be accessed at:

<https://education.nova.edu/students/current-students/studentcataloghandbook.html>. For questions regarding your program, please contact Lisa Carbone at fischlerinfo@nova.edu

* Per 34 C.F.R. § 668.43, the Fischler College of Education and School of Criminal Justice (FCE&SCJ) defines a Professional Licensure Program as an academic program designed, marketed, and/or advertised to fulfill the educational prerequisites for a particular state license or certificate for employment.