> http://www.etdadmin.com/novaed

Resources and guides to using ProQuest submission can be found here:

> http://www.etdadmin.com/cgi-bin/main/resources?siteId=691

There is a section for including your dissertation in the NSU institutional repository where you can check off a box. Once the dissertation is submitted to ProQuest, NSUWorks staff will receive a copy and be able to post your dissertation in the NSU repository as well.

(*) Restricting access to the dissertation's full-text. An embargo may be an option for authors aiming to publish their work, or to protect sensitive information. Despite the embargo, the dissertation citation and abstract would still be available.
