PROFESSIONAL LICENSURE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

This Disclosure is strictly limited to NSU’s determination of whether the Bachelor of Science degree in Child Development with a concentration in Child Life (the “Program”), if successfully completed, would be sufficient to meet the educational licensure requirements in a State, as defined as 34 C.F.R. § 600.2. NSU cannot provide verification of an individual’s ability to meet licensure requirements unrelated to its educational programming.

This Disclosure does not provide any guarantee that any particular State licensure entity will approve or deny your application. Furthermore, this Disclosure does not account for changes in state law or regulation that may affect your application for licensure and occur after this disclosure has been made. Enrolled students and prospective students are strongly encouraged to contact their State’s licensure entity to review all licensure and certification requirements imposed by their State(s) of choice.

In accordance with 34 C.F.R. § 668.43, NSU has determined whether the Program satisfies State educational requirements for licensure as follows:

PROGRAM MEETS EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS	PROGRAM DOES NOT MEET EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS	CANNOT BE CONFIRMED IF PROGRAM MEETS EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS
		All States, the District of Columbia and the U.S. protectorates, as defined in 34 CFR §600.

State licensure or certification requirements can vary from state to state, depending on each State’s laws and regulations. The State licensure entities are responsible for overseeing the educational and non-educational requirements for licensure or certification for their State.

NON-STATE CREDENTIAL DISCLOSURE: Students may apply for the Child Life Specialist (CCLS) Certification upon successful completion of the Program. To the extent of whether certification is required for State licensure, this information is incorporated in NSU’s determination of whether this Program satisfies the State’s educational requirements for licensure is included in the chart above.¹

We encourage you to contact your applicable State licensure entities to familiarize yourself with the specific professional licensure or certification requirements of your State. Visit the National Database of Child Care Licensing webpage for information on State childcare requirements and local contact information <https://childcareta.acf.hhs.gov/licensing>

For information on how to contact educator licensure entities, please visit the U.S. Department of Education State Contacts webpage at: <https://www2.ed.gov/about/contacts/state/index.html?src=contact-us>

If you have trouble obtaining the information you need, or if you have any other questions regarding certification, please contact Dr. Tim Scala at tscala@nova.edu or Dr. Lisa Carbone at lfuller@nova.edu for assistance.

¹ Students who successfully complete courses in the Child Life concentration may apply for the Child Life Specialist (CCLS) Certification through the Association of Child Life Professionals (ACLP). Graduates of the Program may be subject to additional requirements for licensure, endorsement, or certification in the State in which they intend to seek employment.
